Part B: Additional Information

Dance Scholarships are awarded at The Springfield Anglican College to students who possess a passion for dance and display exceptional dancing talent. A willingness to commit to the ongoing participation in the College's Student Life program is essential.

As part of this application process, applicants are requested to:

- Prepare two contrasting pieces of dance to demonstrate their level of achievement (1 minute per style). For example: Contemporary and Musical Theatre. The level of difficulty must conform to the level of dance which is currently being studied.
- Record each performance in either .MOV or MP4 format and submit digitally along with this application form.

To demonstrate an understanding of the creative, choreographic concepts of dance in a theoretical sense, please answer the below question.

Please explain your performances, the idea behind then performance and give a short example of their described movements during the piece.

Where applicable, please attach letters of reference from teachers, coaches or co-curricular tutors, and/or copies of awards, certificates etc. to support this application.
