

Student Protection Officers

The Springfield Anglican College

As of 5 March 2024

The Springfield Anglican College (College) has adopted the Protecting Children and Young People in Anglican Education Policy, Guidelines and Procedures, published by the Anglican Schools Commission. As such, where there is a potential, perceived or actual concern:

- (a) for a child or young person associated with a school; or
- (b) about the conduct or behaviour of a person who has or had an association with children or young people through a school; children, young people and their families are encouraged, and staff, volunteers and visitors must, as soon as practicable, share this information with an Appropriate Person such as a Student Protection Officer.

The Principal has appointed the following staff as Student Protection Officers at the College:
