

Critical Thinkers:

- Locate, analyse and critique information
 - Explore critical questions
 - Consider diverse perspective and values
 - Identify patterns and connections
 - Use various types of reasoning
 - Use technology to enhance critical thinking skills
-

Creative Learners:

- Seek opportunities to be entrepreneurial
 - Design and solve real world problems
 - Are innovative in their thinking
 - Believe they can make a difference in the world
 - Are solution focused
 - Are confident to take risks
 - Use technology to enable ideas
-

Collaborative Learners:

- Work respectfully in teams
 - Build on their own and others' strengths
 - Share responsibility with others
 - Communicate well across cultures and disciplines
 - Use technology to facilitate collaboration
-

Reflective Learners:

- Evaluate their own learning
 - Seek and act upon feedback positively
 - Consider the impact they have on others
 - Refine ideas
 - Set ambitious goals
 - Consume technology critically
-

Self-Directed Learners:

- Are owners of their own learning
 - Create their own learning opportunities
 - Actively research and investigate problems
 - Strive for excellence
 - Demonstrate perseverance and resilience
 - Transfer knowledge and skills to a variety of contexts
 - Utilise technology to assist their learning
-

Communicative Learners:

- Articulate thoughts and ideas clearly using a range of modes
- Communicate effectively to different audiences
- Are open and responsive to new and diverse perspectives
- Use technology to communicate efficiently